

2021-22 RECOMMENDED READS YEAR 2

	Agard, John	Books Make Good Pets	Bet you never thought of a book as a pet? But this story shows that books are pets - they are fun, they are there when you need some support and they can be your best friends. A lovely look at the value of books and stories	Y
	Biddulph, Rob	Dog Gone	Teddy and his human Dave are exploring the local park when a storm descends. In the rush to get somewhere dry, Teddy and Dave get split up. Teddy has to find his human but finds some unexpected surprises on the way.	Y
	Brol, Magda	Once Upon a Penguin	Paco the penguin finds a strange object on his iceberg that turns out to be a book; and the penguins love it. So they decide to go off to find more, a journey that ends in a library! A delightful tale about the joys of reading and also how useful a library can be.	Y
	Burrows, Sophie	Ig Pig and Og Pog and Bog Frog!	Ig Pig and Og Pog do everything together - they are best friends. Until Bog, another frog, turns up to spoil the party. An exuberant look at how life changes but there is always room for one more friend.	Y
	Butchart, Pamela	Dino Chick	The Year 2 children at Wigglesbottom primary have 3 more adventures in this latest title in the series. Is an egg a chicken's or a dinosaur's? What happens when a new girl joins the class and turns out to be someone special and how do the children react when their beloved school library is threatened with closure children.	CF
	Colby, Rebecca	The Castle the King Built	A rhyming story about the working life inside a medieval castle. Lovely illustrations to pore over as well as to discuss all the jobs needed to keep the castle running. Can be read as a story or an information book.	Y

	Davidson, Zanna	Monsters at the Seaside	Billy and his mini monsters are off for a holiday at the seaside. They have lots of fun until one of the monsters is stolen by a seagull. An enjoyable story for developing readers with lots of pictures to help with the story.	N
	Donald, Alison	The Glambulance	When you are a dog stuck in a police pound and no one wants you, you need the team from the Glambulance to come and do a make over. A fun story about helping out other people, this is an ideal beginner reader story	N
	Earle, Phil	Albert Johnson and the Buns of Steel	Albert loves sport but his Dad loves baking. When Dad gets a robot to help out in the bakery, all seems well until the robot malfunctions. Albert needs all his sporting prowess to stop the robot ruining everything. A short chapter book ideal for children moving onto longer texts	CF
	Meserve, Jessica	Beyond the Burrow	A small rabbit ventures out of her burrow to discover a big world outside. But she has to be brave as she encounters other animals and situations. A reassuring book about being brave and trying new things.	Y
	Mortimer, Helen	Omar, the Bees and Me	An inclusive story ostensibly about bees and how important they are to the environment but also about how a refugee boy finds his place in his new home. Lots to talk about but told in a very gentle manner.	Y
	Pye, Ali	Go, Go, Guinea Pig!	Two separate stories about the adventures of Harry the guinea pig. Harry is accidentally swapped with another guinea pig and ends up on TV - can he perform some tricks? Can Harry make it to France with his family when they go on holiday?	CF
	Rentta, Sharon	Toby the Deep-Sea Diver	Toby is a tiger that loves to dive. He really wants to go to the ocean deep, so finds a way to go into the ocean and have an adventure.	Y
	Sturton, Margaret	A Fox Called Herbert	Herbert loves foxes and just wants to be one. His Mum doesn't understand and wants him to behave like a good rabbit. A story about identity and being accepted for who you are.	Y

	Todd-Stanton, Joe	A Mouse Called Julian	Julian lives by himself and that is the way he likes it but when a fox makes an unannounced visit to Julian's home, Julian realises that friends are not so bad after all. A story that shows that change is not always a bad thing and you can try new experiences if you want.	Y
	Webster, Sheryl	One Little Bird	An environmental story about how one action can impact on many things. When a small bird has her tree cut down by a human, she protests by nesting on his house. Her single action prompts other animals to take a stand as well, thus showing that by working together we can make a difference.	Y
	Woolvin, Bethan	I Can Catch a Monster	Bo the Brave is left behind when her brothers go off to find a monster. So Bo decides to have an adventure all by herself with some surprising consequences. A story of female ingenuity and bravery showing that girls can be as good as the boys.	Y
	Yarlett, Emma	Nibbles : The Monster Hunt	Nibbles, the book eating monster, discovers some non-fiction books for a change. This fun story introduces non-fiction books and shows the variety that are available to read for pleasure.	Y
	Somara, Shini	A Scientist Like Me	A routine visit to the beach develops into a realisation that science is all around us. This is non-fiction but reads like a story showing how important science is to everyday life.	500
	Robertson, Matt	Do You Love Dinosaurs?	This book is full of facts and information about dinosaurs and other prehistoric creatures but told in a fun and entertaining manner. Lots of illustrations make it very accessible to all those dinosaur lovers in school.	567

Y = Picture Book
N = Developing Readers
CF = Children's Fiction

 = Available as an eBook

These materials are the property of Hampshire School Library Service, please ensure that you do not reproduce or publicise these on any public access website.

To view these books on Peters please click the link below. The order of books may not be the same as this list, but you can amend the order if you wish using the Sort By box:

<https://tinyurl.com/yckrv2yy>

