

2021-22 RECOMMENDED READS YEAR 1

	Altes, Marta	New in Town	A dog arrives in a new town and is filled with apprehension and excitement. Great to discuss new experiences and how we feel when dealing with them	Y
	Blunt, Fred	Gnome	Gnome is very rude to everyone but when he is asked nicely to stop fishing in a pond and refuses to comply, he gets his just deserts. A very funny story about manners and being nice to other people.	Y
	Bond, John	Mini Rabbit Come Home	Mini Rabbit is camping in his back garden and needs to prepare. But will he manage to get everything together before the weather turns to rain.	Y
	Bright, Rachel	Free-Range Freddy	A newly-hatched chicken does not conform to normal chicken behaviour much to the distress of the other chickens. But Freddy shows them that being different is not so bad and can add some colour into everyone's life.	Y
	Catchpole, James	What Happened to You?	Joe has only one leg but just wants to get on with having fun in the playground. But everyone else is curious about his disability and interrupts him constantly. Lots to discuss about how disabled people feel and how they have feelings just like the rest of us.	Y
	Coelho, Joseph	Luna Loves Art	This is a story about a school trip to an art gallery but is also about how a little boy is dealing with his sense of place in the world.	Y
	Davies, Becky	Don't Mess With Duck!	Duck is on a mission to find a peaceful pond but just when he thinks he has found one, Frog appears. Can the two animals realise that sharing is a good thing when they both want the same thing.	Y

Hay,
John

You Live Where?!

Kookaburra casually asks the other animals on holiday where they come from and then is astonished at the funny placenames he discovers.
A really entertaining book which also introduces countries around the world and how places get called the names they do. Y
